

Come see what the excitement over the sage grouse is all about!

On February 27, photographer Noppadol Paothong, publisher of the acclaimed books, Sage Grouse: Icon of the West and Save the Last Dance: A Story of North American Grassland Grouse, will be showing his incredible images of Greater Sage-Grouse and sharing stories from his decade-long journey of documenting this extraordinary species and their vanishing habitats.

Nop's presentation will be the highlight of this event recognizing the importance of the National Greater Sage-Grouse Planning Strategy. Preceding the presentation there will also be a brief policy update by Mark Salvo of Defenders of Wildlife.

Please join us!

DETAILS

February 27, 2018 | 5:30 – 7:00 PM | Kennedy Caucus Room
Senate Russell Office Building Room – SR 325

Light food and refreshments will be served.

Please R.S.V.P. by Monday, February 26 to Steve Holmer, American Bird Conservancy.

Sponsored by Western Watersheds Project, Center for Biological Diversity, NRDC, Sierra Club, Defenders of Wildlife, American Bird Conservancy, WildEarth Guardians, Wild Utah Project, and the Endangered Species Coalition.